HASBROUCK NEARING ITS SECOND OREBODY

MINING ACTIVITY IN GOLD MOUNTAIN DISTRICT IS STEADILY ON INCREASE

As a more beginning, there are six hoists now in operation in the Gold Mountain section of the Tonopah district and forty-five miners are employed. There is a feeling of optimism prevailing.

The Hasbrouck, which has a production record extending over the past several years, is making additions to its machinery, preparatory to heavier work. The main working tunnel is now in 500 feet past the first ledge. A material and encouraging change took place in the face yesterday. As the croppings between the first and second ledges are only 600 feet apart, the second orebody may be encountered at any time.

MANHATTAN WILL HAVE BOY SHARPSHOOTERS

AUXILIARY TO NATIONAL RIFLE CLUB FORMED IN PINE TREE CAMP

Percival Nash of the Manhattan community council of defense auto over from the pine tree camp yesterday. His principal business was in connection with Mr. Nash's plan to organize a junior or auxiliary to the Manhattan National Rifle Club, an institution which has been proven to be of great credit to the battle-born state, in that, in addition to its home activities, it was selected to represent Nevada at the Jacksonville national shoot, from which it returned with flying colors.

At the instigation or suggestion of Mr. Nash and his associates in the Manhattan National Rifle Club, the boys who wish to join will be provided with Krag-Jorgensen—the club member using regulation Springfield. There will be certain times specified when they may use the range, under instruction from and guidance of rifle club members. The matter of ammunition will be cared for. All boys desiring to join the juniors must have written permits from their parents.

AMUSEMENTS

GOOD BILL AT THE BUTLER TONIGHT

Emily Stevens, the brilliant star in today's play and the star of the "Slacker," also many other notable productions, has also a record of success on the speaking stage. "Alias Mrs. Jessop" (today) gives Miss Stevens opportunities for showing her versatility, as she plays a double role, that of a good and a bad girl, making each a distinct characterization. In "Alias Mrs. Jessop," the star has a vehicle to her liking. What would be impossible to another woman becomes merely a challenge to her to show her ability. There are two leading characters in "Alias Mrs. Jessop," a womanly woman, Janet Ford, and a worthless, "vampire" type, her cousin, Lillian Ford. Emily Stevens plays them both. The situation is a dramatic one and is handled with great skill. A sensational raid on a fashionable gambling den and a dance on a glass topped table is performed by Emily Stevens, both of which are very exciting and interesting scenes in this feature. With this five-part feature will also be shown a Fox Sunshine comedy, you know just what they are, each foot a laugh for all, and here is one that has the record for a laugh on an inch, "A Son of a Gun." Be on hand today and you sure will enjoy the fun. Tomorrow three features, Charlie Chaplin, "Vengeance and the Woman" and the last number of Pearl White in the "Fatal Ring." Owing to change in time the first show will start at 7:30 on and after Sunday, March 31st.

BODY TAKEN EAST

The body of A. L. Lockridge, the secretary and treasurer of the Hooper and William Patrick Mining companies, who died at Manhattan yesterday morning, was brought to Tonopah last evening by Col. W. P. Sockwell and William C. Houppert, his associates. The remains left this morning for Indianapolis, accompanied by Colonel Sockwell, who will return immediately after the funeral to continue company operations.
